

Me4kiz, LLC

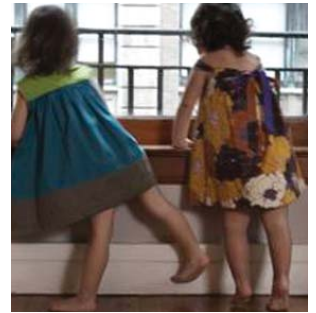

Me4kiz, LLC is a woman-owned and family-operated company based in Arizona honored with numerous awards, kudos and personal thank-you notes from celebrity customers. Owner Richelle Nassos tells us that her medibuddy 4 kids has been featured on Extreme Home Makeover. The latest product offering from the just-nine-month-old company is the medibuddy, all in the name of "First Aid...Made Fun!" all Made in the USA...but that's not all: every purchase made with me4kiz helps disabled people. All of the products are assembled by the disabled community. "It is our way of making a difference while making a living," Richelle says. For more, visit www.me4kiz.com.

Over $2.12 million worth of new clothing and merchandise from blankets to shoes was sent by Kids in Distressed Situations, Inc. (K.I.D.S.) and Fashion Delivers for distribution to children and families driven from their homes by wildfires in Southern California. The initial shipments were sent in the days following the disaster to the San Diego Food Bank and World Vision Los Angeles. Both agencies are deeply involved in assisting California families whose homes were destroyed or who were forced to flee when their homes were threatened by the fires.

K.I.D.S. was recently awarded the coveted 4-Star rating by Charity Navigator, the primary ranking organization of charities in the United States, based on the charity's exemplary fiscal efficiency and the advancement of its mission. The charity has also been ranked in the top 200 charities by Forbes Magazine.
